

NCW ORGANIZES WORKSHOP ON GENDER RESPONSIVE GOVERNANCE FOR WOMEN MLAS

The National Commission for Women organized a three-day Workshop from February 4-6 on Gender Responsive Governance for elected women representatives (MLAs/MLCs) from seven southern and north-eastern states under 'She Is A Changemaker' project, a pan-India capacity building programme of the Commission for improving leadership skills of women representatives at all levels at Vishakhapatnam. Shri M. Venkaiah Naidu, Hon'ble Former Vice President of India graced the valedictory ceremony as Chief Guest. Chairperson, National Commission for Women Ms Rekha Sharma, Muddada Ravi Chandra, IAS, Principal Secretary to Government of Andhra Pradesh, Women, Children, Differently abled and Senior Citizens Welfare Department, Srinivas Katikithala, Director, LBSNAA and Joint Secretary, NCW, Shri Asholi Chalai also graced the occasion.

During the workshop, the women MLAs were trained on gender-responsive governance in different sessions such as 'Effective Leadership', 'Inclusive Governance', 'Gender Sensitive and Inclusive Communication', 'Strengthening Legislative Traditions' and 'Challenges faced by Women in Politics', etc. The Workshop was attended by 33 participants from the states of Kerala, Tamil Nadu, Andhra Pradesh, Maharashtra, Arunachal Pradesh, Sikkim and Assam.

NCW organizes Capacity Building Programme for Women Artisans

The National Commission for Women organized a Seminar on 'Capacity Building & Training of Women Artisans' in collaboration with District Administration, Kutch, Gujarat on February 23, 2023. Sessions on different topics were held including 'Awareness on Schemes for Women', 'Financial Literacy' and 'Upscaling Skill Techniques'. Chairperson Ms Rekha Sharma participated as Chief Guest and shared her insights with the women artisans. She also visited stalls of women artisans demonstrating their craft outside the venue.

NCW organizes Stakeholder Meeting on Strengthening of Response to Gender-Based Violence in J&K and Ladakh

The National Commission for Women in collaboration with Social Welfare Department and Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai, organized a meeting of stakeholders of Union Territories of Jammu and Kashmir and Ladakh on February 10, 2023 regarding strengthening of response towards gender-based violence through greater coordination. The meeting, chaired by Chairperson, National Commission for Women, Rekha Sharma, was attended by Commissioner Secretary, Social Welfare, Sheetal Nanda, representative of TISS, Mumbai and other concerned officers.

She Is a Changemaker

The National Commission for Women organized concluded fifth and last batch of She Is A Changemaker training programme in collaboration with Rambhau Prabodhini, Maharashtra. The three day training programme was attended by Women Sarpanches and members of Gram Panchayat.

Legal Awareness Drive

The National Commission for Women organized a legal awareness session on Rights of Indian Women in NRI Matrimonial Issues in collaboration with National University of Advanced Legal Studies, Kochi and DLSA, Ernakulam at High Court Campus.

Women in Dairy Farming

The National Commission for Women organized a five day training and capacity building program to enhance the knowledge and entrepreneurship of women involved in dairy farming sector in collaboration with Bihar Animal Sciences University.

Chairperson's Engagements

Meeting with UN Women India

Chairperson, National Commission for Women, Ms Rekha Sharma held a meeting with UN Women India Country Representative Susan Ferguson and other senior officials on February 21, 2023. They explored potential areas of collaboration to enhance gender equality in India & exchanged ideas on initiatives taken by both the organizations.

Economic Times Global Business Summit

Chairperson Ms Rekha Sharma participated as a panelist and shared her invaluable insights in a captivating discussion on 'Balancing the Power Equation in Leadership' at the Economic Times Global Business Summit 2023 on February 18.