OFFICIAL VISIT TO ASSAM

The National Commission for Women led by Hon'ble Chairperson, NCW Ms. Rekha Sharma undertook an official visit to Assam. There have been various reports about the need for improvement in the working as well as living condition of women working in the tea gardens. The Commission being concerned about the welfare of these women visited the Tea gardens to assess the condition of these women.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF COMMISSION'S TEAM

- (i) There is no ATM facility, there is a need to install ATM to enable them to operate /withdraw their money as per their requirement. This would result in effective implementation of digital transaction of wages and direct benefit transfer.
- (ii) Training of alternative skills like dairy farming, poultry may also be taken up in association with Veterinary/Agriculture Universities and colleges in nearby districts.
- (iii) Regarding transport, the management offered to share cost in case the Government Transport Department is willing to introduce public transport in the area.
- (iv) There is need for associating some organization like Alcoholic Anonymous as alcohol is a menace in the garden leading to domestic violence and other crimes.

Chairperson, NCW held a meeting with Hon'ble Chief Minister of Assam, Shri Himanta Biswa Sarma at Assembly Secretariat, Guwahati. During the meeting, she briefed the Chief Minister about the observation and finding of NCW's visit in the tea gardens of Dibrugarh. Chairperson, NCW also made a courtesy call on the Hon'ble Governor of Assam.

Hon'ble Chairperson, NCW had a meeting with DGP and other senior Police Officers to discuss crimes against women in the state and pending complaints in NCW pertaining to Assam. During the meeting, the officers made a presentation on the various initiatives of Police to address the issues of women.
