Guidelines for grant of Financial Assistance for Webinars

1. Introduction:

The National Commission for Women has been providing financial support for conducting Seminars by Colleges, Universities, State Commissions for Women, Non- governmental organisations, etc., with the objective of getting an insight into the relevant subject and also throwing up recommendations for better implementation or even modification of the existing policies/ programmes / schemes/projects relating to welfare and empowerment of women. Such Seminars also provide a forum for sharing knowledge, information and experience of participants and resource persons on the subject of the Seminars. Such experience sharing could be helpful in better dissemination of the required information and also lead to better execution of schemes, etc. at the ground level.

The Commission has, with a view to simplify the procedure to be followed in such cases, and to ensure improved outcomes of such Seminars, revised the guidelines for conducting/organizing Seminars for which financial assistance is provided by the Commission. The revised procedure is detailed in subsequent paragraphs.

These guidelines will be applicable to the Webinar proposals for the Financial Year 2020-21 and beyond.

2. Time Schedule:

In the ordinary course, the subjects, for conducting Webinars will be identified by the Commission every year and these will be disseminated through the Website of the Commission to all concerned. The Commission may, in its discretion, also issue abbreviated advertisements in appropriate journals/newspapers, etc. for wide dissemination of information in this regard.

A proposal seeking financial assistance for conducting a Webinar from the National Commission for Women is to be submitted only through online portal at ncw.nic.in and <http://newapps.nic.in/eproposalv2>. The proposals received through on-line portal before the stipulated last date only will be entertained.

The Commission will process and finalize the list of proposals to be funded by the Commission.

In cases, where such proposals are approved by the Commission, the first installment of the approved amount shall be released before organizing the webinar. The Webinar will also need to be conducted within the same period as mentioned in the public notice. The second installment, may, however be released in the subsequently, provided all required documents have been submitted within one month of the date of organizing the Webinar.

3. Eligibility for financial assistance for Webinars and release of such assistance:

Institutions namely, the State Women Commissions, Universities including Deemed to be Universities Colleges, Non-governmental organisations (NGOs) having valid registration with NITI AYOOG shall be eligible for grant of financial assistance in accordance with the procedures stipulated in these guidelines. In case of NGOs, conducting/organizing Webinars on women related issues should be included as one of its mandate in accordance with its by-laws/Memorandum/Articles of Association, etc. No organisation blacklisted as per details specified in the guidelines relating to research studies or Webinars will be eligible to apply. Similarly, organisations blacklisted by State or Central Government, or any of their statutory / autonomous bodies shall also not be eligible to apply for grant of assistance for conducting Webinars. NGO's must certify that they have not violated the Rules of FCRA Regulations and that they have not been blacklisted by any Department of the Government of India.

The maximum financial assistance for organizing a Webinar shall be Rs. 65,000/- (Rupees Sixty Five thousand only)

Component-wise permissibility of funds has been programmed in the format required to be filled up on the online portal.

- One organization will be provided financial assistance for one Webinar only.
- The number of participants should not be less than 30.
- The duration of webinar must be at least 03 hours.

All non-governmental organizations (NGOs) will be required to indicate their registration number with the NITI Ayog. As stated earlier, no organization without valid registration with NITI Ayog will be eligible to submit a proposal to the National Commission for Women for conducting a Webinar.

All proposals should have the details of resource persons proposed to be engaged for the Webinar and it will be ensured that at least 60% of the resource persons attend the Webinar and the replacement, if any, are brought to the notice of the Commission and such replacements are equally competent in the relevant area.

Every proposal submitted should be accompanied by an undertaking that the organisation has not been blacklisted by any organisation of the Government of India or State Government or any Constitutional/ Statutory body/other authority under such Governments as in format mentioned in Annexure II.

The organisation conducting the Webinar shall also comply with all terms & conditions specified in the sanction letter/order.

4. Assessment of proposals:

The proposals received through the online portal shall be evaluated either by the Commission on its own or through expert panel(s)/committee(s) selected by the Commission for the purpose. The expert panel/committee shall, where so constituted, make suitable recommendations to the Commission for acceptance or revision or rejection of proposals examined by it.

The expert panel/committee, referred to above and the National Commission for Women shall while making recommendations, inter alia take into account i) the relevance of the topic of the Webinar to the area identified by the Commission; ii) capability of the organisation as evidenced by the qualification, experience and quality of resource persons to be associated with the Webinar; iii) past record of the organisation in organizing Webinars particularly in cases where these are undertaken in collaboration with the National Commission for Women; and iv) quality of the proposal especially from the perspective of women's welfare and empowerment.

In cases, where in the opinion of the Commission, the outcome of Webinar can be improved, the Commission may suggest changes in the scope or any other parameter. In such cases, the organization which had applied for approval of the proposal shall be given the opportunity to modify the proposal in such time-frame as may be specified by the Commission in individual cases. The proposals where suggested changes are not made shall not be considered for approval by the Commission.

The Commission shall, keeping in view all relevant facts, upload details of Webinars approved by it on its website.

The Commission may, where considered appropriate, advise improvement in the report rendered after completion of the Webinar.

5. Release of Funds and submission of Webinar report:

The funds for organising a Webinar approved by the Commission shall be released in two instalments, each equivalent to 50% of the sanctioned amount.

The institution concerned shall, in case of approval of its proposal, be required to submit a 'Bank Guarantee' equivalent to the amount of the first instalment to be released. The first instalment of the sanctioned amount will be released only after receipt of a valid bank guarantee in the prescribed format (Annexure I). The bank guarantee so submitted should be valid for a period of ONE YEAR after the scheduled date for organising the Webinar. It will be the responsibility of the organisation conducting the Webinar that, where applicable, the validity of the required documents such as 'Bank Guarantee, etc, is extended suitably well in advance of the expiry of the validity of the bank guarantee.

The bank guarantee shall, however, not be required if the proposal is from a recognized University, Government organization, ICSSR institution, autonomous body/ research organization authorized to award academic degrees, UGC approved academic Institutions or a State Women Commission provided the organization concerned undertakes to ensure that the Webinar will be conducted / organised within the time permitted by the Commission and also agrees to refund. The entire amount released by the Commission with interest, if the Webinar is not conducted within the permitted time, or in the opinion of the Commission, the outcome of the Webinar in terms of its recommendations, number of participants and quality of resource persons, etc. is not of the desired standard/quality.

The Commission shall, in selected cases, depute its representative as observers to the Webinar.

The organisation shall submit a report within one month of the Webinar having been organised. The report should include details of the topic(s) discussed, summary of views expressed by resource persons, their details and the recommendations that emerged from the deliberations of the Webinar to be implemented at Central, State and local levels. Plagiarism in any form will lead to summary rejection of the report/proposal and other legal consequences.

In cases, where the Webinar is not organized within the prescribed time or such further time, as may be permitted by the Commission, keeping in view the special reasons or where the report rendered is not assessed to be of the required standard/quality, the Commission shall have the bank guarantee revoked / encashed to recover the amount released. The Commission may also initiate proceedings for recovering of the amount released along with interest @ 12% per annum in any other manner. Procedure stipulated in the guidelines relating to research studies shall be followed in regard to recovery of the outstanding amount.

In case of educational/other institutions who are not required to submit 'Bank Guarantee', the institution concerned shall also be responsible for ensuring the quality of the resource persons and the report rendered after conducting the Webinar and its timely completion. Any recoverable amount shall be paid by such institution to the National Commission for Women. In such cases, the designated/authorized authority in such an Institution shall be required to make an undertaking as per format prescribed in case of guidelines relating to research studies.

In case of organizations other than those mentioned above, the organization or the members of the organisation, shall jointly and severally be responsible for paying the recoverable amount and interest thereon, in the event, the amount cannot be recovered by revoking /encashing the bank guarantee. Such action can be taken in all cases where the terms and conditions specified in these guidelines or in the approval/sanction letter/order are not fulfilled.

On completion of the Webinar, the organisation conducting it shall submit the Report of webinar to the Commission along with original bills and vouchers and a Utilization Certificate in GFR-12A under General Financial Rules, 2017 from the Chartered Accountant/Competent Authority. After receipt of the report, if it is found to be satisfactory by the Commission and the required utilization certificate and original bills & vouchers or bank payment Slip are submitted, the bank guarantees, if any, submitted in relation to that Webinar and the balance amount of 50% shall be released. In case of Government institutions/organisations, certified photocopies of the bills and vouchers or Bank payment Slip and the utilisation certificate by the authorised Finance/Accounts Officers will be acceptable. In cases, where either the utilisation certificate or bills and vouchers are for a lesser amount, only such lesser amount equivalent to the amount of bills & vouchers shall be released and the case closed.

The organization receiving financial assistance for Webinar should not publish the recommendation without prior intimation to the NCW.

The grantee organization will maintain separate accounts in respect of this grant. The accounts will remain open to inspection to the representatives of the National Commission for Women including the CAG of India.

Any unspent balance out of this grant will be refunded by the organization within 60 days from the date of completion of the project failing which such unspent balance will attract penal interest @ 12% per annum for the period from date of completion of the project to the date of refund of unspent balance.

The decision of the Commission in all cases relating to the standard of study shall be final. All disputes relating to any study / grant will be subject to the jurisdiction of courts located in Delhi. All financial assistance will be released through PFMS only.
