

NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR WOMEN

राष्ट्रीय महिला आयोग

MAY, 2023

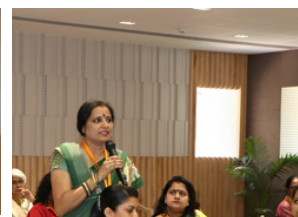

Hon'ble Chairperson, Ms. Rekha Sharma held an online Interactive Meeting with SPs from every district of West Bengal to take stock of the measures adopted to combat human trafficking. The officers apprised her on the prevention, rescue, & rehabilitation measures implemented by AHTUs. During the meeting, Ms. Rekha Sharma emphasized the significance of a coordinated and proactive approach in tackling the issue of human trafficking. She stressed the importance of prevention strategies and acknowledged the role played by Anti-Human Trafficking Units in raising awareness amongst the Women.

NCW collaborated with the NRI Cell, CID Department, Andhra Pradesh Police, Mangalagiri, to launch an awareness series on NRI matrimonial issues in Andhra Pradesh. The first session was a seminar titled "Socio-Legal Empowerment on Rights of Indian Women in NRI Marriages," held at Acharya Nagarjuna University Campus. The Joint Secretary of NCW, Shri A. Asholi Chalai, deliberated on the role of NCW and key aspects of NRI marriages, including legal complexities.

NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR WOMEN

National Commission for Women and Rambhau Mhalgi Prabodhini, Mumbai jointly organised a training camp "Leadership and Capacity Building" for Women Political Office bearers of all the parties in Maharashtra. Vice Chancellor, JNU Dr. Shantishree Pandit inaugurated 'She Is A Changemaker' training program organized by NCW along with Rambhau Mhalgi Prabodhini. 40 Women office bearers of political parties of national & state level from Pune division are attending the training.

As part of National Commission for Women's initiative, students from the Bedia community met with Chairperson. The Chairperson welcomed the students and expressed her admiration for their courage and determination to pursue education despite the challenges they faced. During the meeting, Ms. Sharma encouraged the students to dream big and explore various avenues for their future. She shared her own life experiences, highlighting the obstacles she had overcome and the importance of perseverance in achieving one's goals.

NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR WOMEN

Hon'ble Chairperson Ms. Rekha Sharma participated and shared her insights in the report launch programme of 'Barriers to Legal Aid for Survivors of Sexual Violence in India' organized by Dept of Sociology, Savitribai Phule Pune University in collaboration with Maitri Network, Pune.

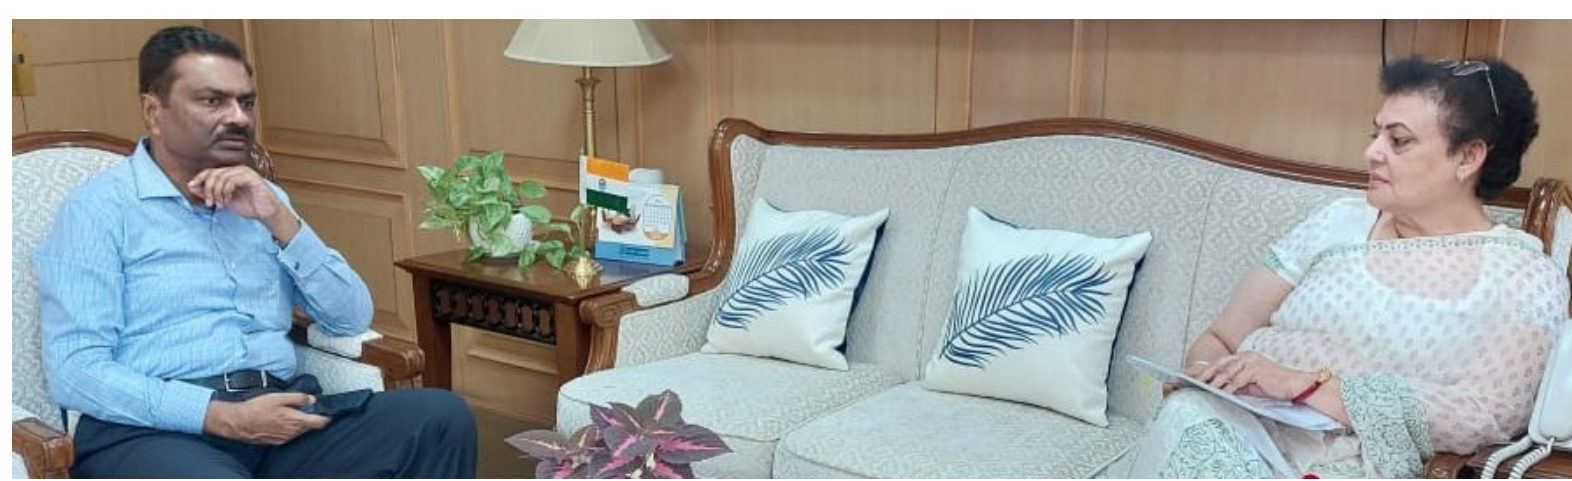

NCW organized Regional Level Seminar on 'Women & Health - A Holistic & Life Cycle Approach' with Assam State Commission for Women and Department of Women and Child Development, Assam in Guwahati. Ms. Delina Khongdup, Member of National Commission for Women and Shri Keshab Mahanta, Minister of Health & Family Welfare, Assam addressed in the Inaugural Session.

Ms. Meenakshi Negi, Member Secretary, National Commission for Women addressed the interns on "Functioning of NCW" as a part of the online short term internship.

NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR WOMEN

Hon'ble Chairperson Ms. Rekha Sharma held a meeting with DGP Haryana, IG (Law and Order) and DIG (Women Safety) and discussed several issues including pending cases related to crimes against women, safety of women in the state & gender sensitization of police personnel, among others.

Hon'ble Chairperson Ms. Rekha Sharma along with the Member Secretary Ms. Meenakshi Negi participated and addressed the Chair headed by Justice Arun Mishra (retired) in the Statutory Full Commission Meeting of chairpersons and representatives of the seven National Commissions, held by National Human Rights Commission.

NCW recognized the significance of menstrual hygiene and its impact on the overall well-being of women and girls. In collaboration with She Wings NGO, they organized a Menstrual Hygiene Awareness Day to raise awareness and address the challenges surrounding menstrual health. The event brought together various stakeholders, including government officials, healthcare professionals, women's rights activists, and community leaders, to initiate an open dialogue on menstrual hygiene management.

